

PARAGRAPH READING COMPREHENSION #1

Read the following paragraph and select the correct answer to the questions that follow.

Hank Aaron was a famous African American baseball player. He was born in Mobile, Alabama in 1934. He is America's all-time champion home-run hitter. He began his professional career playing for all-black baseball teams, but joined the National League at the age of 18. He played for the Braves in Milwaukee and Atlanta. He also played for the Milwaukee Brewers. He was the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957.

1. Did Hank Aaron hit many home runs?

YES

NO

2. Did Hank Aaron play basketball?

YES

NO

3. Did Hank Aaron play for the Atlanta Braves?

YES

NO

4. Was Hank Aaron the Most Valuable Player in 1934?

YES

NO

5. Was Hank Aaron born in Alabama?

YES

NO

6. How old was Hank Aaron when he joined the National League?

18

22

16

7. Where was Hank Aaron born?

Atlanta

Milwaukee

Alabama

8. What award did Hank Aaron receive in 1957?

Most Valuable Player

Most Home Runs

First Black Player